

THREE SUMMERS 2017 SOCIAL EVENTS

Welcome Meeting* and Gift Exchange – Garrigus Suites Community Room

Sunday, June 25 - 4:30-6:30 p.m.

This event is for both non-program and Three Summers program students who are enrolled in any of our Three Summers educational psychology classes, as well as visiting scholars.

Residential life staff will meet with us to go over some general policies regarding living on campus. After, we will hear from Del and Joe, who will discuss the goings on about Center and University activities during the past year.

The Three Summers Program has arranged for a sandwich buffet immediately following the 4:30 orientation meeting. We hope you can join us, even if you are not part of the Three Summers cohort - it is a wonderful opportunity to meet your classmates prior to the start of class on Monday.

There is no charge for this event.

Although the gift exchange is optional, it is a wonderful way to meet colleagues. Bring a wrapped gift (~$10.00) that typifies your hometown (e.g., maple syrup from Vermont) to exchange after the welcome meeting.

Note: New student orientation meeting begins at 2:00 p.m. in the same location. After the orientation meeting, is a walking tour of campus, followed by the welcome meeting. If you plan to participate in the gift exchange, bring the gift to the orientation meeting.

Independence Day Barbecue – Sally and Joe's in Mystic, CT

Tuesday, July 4 – 12:00 noon-5:00 p.m. Carpools will be arranged from campus.

To celebrate Independence Day, Sally and Joe will host an informal barbecue at their home in Mystic Tuesday, July 4, between noon and 5:00 p.m. We invite you and your family and friends to join us. Appetizers and soft drinks, beer, and wine will be available at noon, followed by a barbecue and dessert.

Bring suits to swim in the pool, and beach chairs if you want to sit down by the water. Don't forget sun screen!

Our program has no budget for this event, so we must charge $15.00 dollars per adult and $10.00 per child, age 12 and under.

Cash only, please.

Banquet – Alumni House

Saturday, July 8 – 6:30-9:30 p.m.

The Three Summers program culminates in a semi-formal banquet to celebrate the end of term and graduation. Entertainment, usually in the form of skits or videos, is provided by each class. We cannot emphasize enough how important it is for you to attend the banquet and participate in the banquet activities on Saturday, July 8. Plan to check out of your apartment on Sunday, July 9 if you attend the banquet.

A cash beer and wine bar will be available from 6:30-8:00 p.m. Guests may purchase wine bottles at the bar to take to the table.

Please do not bring your own alcohol.

During the reception from 6:30-6:50, hors d'oeuvres will be provided. On the dinner menu, served buffet style, are the following: Mesclun greens, candied pecans and dried cranberries, tossed in balsamic vinaigrette; chicken chardonnay with artichoke white wine sauce; roast lemon pepper cod; a vegan option - penne with sundried tomatoes, spinach, garlic, and olive oil; followed by chef's choice for dessert. Coffee and tea will also be available. Subject to change, details to follow.

Joe will address the third year graduates at 8:00 p.m. This will be followed by an informal commencement ceremony.

We are pleased to share that we are able to accommodate Three Summers students free of charge. However, visitors, family, and friends must pay $45 per adult and $20 per child, age 12 and under. Checks only, please.
